GERMAN LANGUAGE

German is official language of Germany, Austria, Switzerland, Alsace-Lorraine (France), Northern Italy, East- Belgium, Luxembourg and Liechtenstein. There are 120 million people speak German Language all around the world. German language is 3rd most learned language in the world. It is most similar with English Language. It is also widely used in invention and research.

The Common European Framework of Reference for Languages, abbreviated as CEFR, is a guideline used to describe achievements of learners of foreign languages across Europe. It was put together by the Council of Europe with the main aim to provide a method of learning, singing and teaching which applies to all languages in Europe. In November 2001 a European Union Council Resolution recommended using the CEFR to set up systems of validation of language ability. There are six level of German language which are A1, A2, B1, B2, C1 C2.
