This institution is very excellent. Because the method of teaching is very good and even the faculty is having better knowledge to guide the student in various ways. All the doubts are clarified in an easier way. The good facility we are having here for practice section. Even the staff members will guide how to practice and gain more score. I think this is the best IELTS centre for people who are interested in learning. And all the staff members are very cooperative.

Classes were very helpful in preparation for IELTS examination. Staff and teachers were very supportive during the entire course. I suggest that there should be more practice in classes on writing Essays and letters. Emphasis should be given on writing section as I felt that listening and reading could be managed. Overall I felt it was good to be prepared from the Edworld Education. I really thankful to Edworld Education.

MEHA

Edworld Education for IELTS provided me with a strong foundation to appear for the English language exam. My instructor was always available for help and supported me to prepare better for my weakest sections and at the same time gave me valuable feedback on my performance based on the regular practice tests. The advice I got really helped me to face the test with more confidence and I could score well. I availed the library facilities to practice as well.

PRAKHAR

Edworld for me was an assistance to face IELTS, but I was wrong. Edworld was a lot more than that. To begin with the faculty here is highly proficient; they guide you through the preparation phase with ease. Attending these classes helped polish my English language skills. The faculty always encouraged me to do so. I have improved my public speaking skills too; I am a much more confident speaker now. Overall, I am enthralled to have been part of this institution.
